

Retired Pig

The Retired Pig is a sculpture by the artist, which was created in 1990. It is a large, dark, conical sculpture that resembles a pig's head. The sculpture is made of metal and has a wide, flared base and a pointed top with several small holes. It is surrounded by a wooden walkway and a dense forest of tall trees.

By the artist's name